1/22/2020

St. Paul's School for Girls is pleased to announce an opening for a full-time upper school English teacher for the 2020-2021 school year.

School Overview

The St. Paul's Schools is a family of independent schools located in Brooklandville, Maryland. With more than 1,400 students from ages 6 months to grade 12, St. Paul's Pre and Lower School (coed), St. Paul's School for Girls, and St. Paul's School for Boys share a 120-acre campus, an Episcopal affiliation, and a focus on developing confident, well balanced students who will use their education and ethics to improve the world. In July 2018, the schools unified under the umbrella of The St. Paul's Schools, with a single board of trustees and one president, but each school retains its individual traditions and its gender-specific programs. A coordinated structure allows The St. Paul's Schools to preserve the small-school feel within each school while sharing resources and certain programs to maximize opportunities for students. With St. Paul's unique model, boys and girls are taught together and separately at just the right times in their development.

Specifically, St. Paul's School for Boys, founded in 1849, is a college-preparatory day school in the suburbs of Baltimore, Maryland, with a co-ed Lower School and all-boys' Middle and Upper Schools. The school's mission, "Seek truth, knowledge, and excellence; live by faith, compassion, and integrity," is the daily standard for all members of our community. Seek Truth, Knowledge and Excellence; Live by Faith, Compassion and Integrity.

Position Description

St. Paul's School invites applications for the position of Upper School English Teacher for the 2020-2021 school year. Candidates should have a degree in English or a related field and be able to demonstrate excellent writing and pedagogy. They should also be able to teach a writing-intensive curriculum that encompasses a range of texts from the canonical to the contemporary. Applicants with significant experience in IB, AP, or honors-level courses are preferred.

Student-centered teaching, coaching, and advising are key components of our academically rigorous, individually-focused teaching model; thus, faculty members are expected to participate in the athletic and extra-curricular life of the school as they live our mission.

The St. Paul's Schools are committed to creating a supportive learning environment where all individuals are valued for their unique contributions and are able to achieve their highest potential. We strongly believe that a diverse and inclusive environment is the best learning environment for our students and prepares them to live, work, and thrive in an increasingly global and multicultural community. We reject all prejudice, particularly those based on race, national and ethnic origin, religion, socioeconomic status, gender identity, sexual orientation, and physical characteristics.

Full-time employees are eligible to participate in our comprehensive benefits program which includes, but is not limited to, medical, dental, vision, disability and 403(b). Other supplemental benefits include free lunch, fitness center and tuition remission. Salary is commensurate with experience.

Interested candidates can send their cover letter, resume and list of references to Shannon Duckett, Director of Employee Recruitment and Retention, at sduckett@stpaulsmd.org. The St. Paul's Schools is an equal opportunity employer.