

1/23/2019

St. Paul's School for Girls is pleased to announce an opening for a varsity field hockey coach to start in August 2019.

St. Paul's School for Girls

St. Paul's School for Girls is an independent, college-preparatory school with over 430 students in grades 5-12. It is located on a coordinate campus serving girls and boys from six weeks through 12th grade. St. Paul's School for Girls educates hearts and minds in an inclusive community that is grounded in the Episcopal values of respect, integrity, and spiritual growth. We empower voice, nurture intellectual curiosity and creativity, and inspire confident leaders who serve in the world.

Position Description

The ideal candidate will be a creative, passionate, and experienced field hockey coach who inspires students and thrives in a collaborative atmosphere. The ideal candidate has a communicative approach to coaching and designs practices and drills that integrate skill proficiency, teamwork and an equitable balance of time between all players. The candidate sparks a love for field hockey in their coaching and provides opportunities to strengthen students' on-the-field skills. The ideal candidate brings excitement to the field and celebrates player achievement at all levels. Candidates with varsity coaching experience preferred.

In addition, all coaches will be expected to attend and coach all games, be available to drive the van for away matches, work with girls to improve skills and providing a positive, active and healthy experience for our girls. Coaches will be expected to attend the pre-season coaches meeting, as well as post-season awards ceremony.

This candidate will be expected to work with Athletic Director regularly, communicate with parents and students regarding sport and any events and/or issues that may arise and comply with all IAAM policies, rules & regulations.

Candidate must have excellent communication, organizational and interpersonal skills. Knowledge of field hockey is required, with IAAM experience being preferred. Bachelor's degree also preferred. This is a paid position.

Believing that every child is a child of God and that trust, understanding, and mutual respect lie at the heart of our community. St. Paul's School for Girls is committed to creating a supportive learning environment where all individuals are valued for their unique contributions and are able to achieve their highest potential. We strongly believe that a diverse and inclusive environment is the best learning environment for our girls and prepares them to live, work, and thrive in an increasingly global and multicultural community. We reject all prejudice, particularly those based on race, national and ethnic origin, religion, socioeconomic status, gender identity, sexual orientation, and physical characteristics.

Interested candidates can send their cover letter, resume and list of references to Shannon Duckett, Human Resources Director, at sduckett@spsfg.org. SPSG is an equal opportunity employer.

1/23/2019