

THE ST. PAUL'S SCHOOLS
POSITION DESCRIPTION

TITLE: Technical Theatre Teacher

DIVISION/DEPARTMENT: Arts

REPORTS TO: Dean of the Arts and Upper School Head

CLASSIFICATION: Part time, 10 months

The St. Paul's Schools are a family of independent, college-preparatory schools serving more than 1,300 students—infants through grade 12—on a single 120-acre campus in Brooklandville, Maryland. We are coeducational in the Preschool and Lower School divisions with single-gender Middle and Upper Schools. The St. Paul's Schools educate hearts and minds in an inclusive community that is grounded in the Episcopal values of respect, integrity, and spiritual growth. We deepen students' knowledge and nurture their intellectual curiosity so that they can achieve their best and serve in the world with confidence and compassion.

Position Summary

The St. Paul's Schools are searching for a part-time Technical Theatre teacher to teach Technical Theatre 1 and 2 courses, and to make recommendations regarding the creation of future Technical Theatre courses.

Position requirements

A successful candidate will have extensive knowledge of best practices (as well as the "state of the art") in Lighting Design, Sound Design (microphones, mixing, speaker placement, audio engineering), set design and construction, set painting, including safety. The preferred candidate will have a demonstrated success in working with Upper and Middle School students and extensive knowledge of current pedagogy. Preferred candidates will hold a Bachelor's Degree in Technical Theatre or a related field. The successful candidate will be highly collaborative, engaging and inspiring to students, and will work closely with our theatre and arts faculty. Candidates with a Degree in Technical Theatre, Theatre Education, or a related field are preferred.

Believing that every child is a child of God and that trust, understanding, and mutual respect lie at the heart of our community. The St. Paul's Schools are committed to creating a supportive learning environment where all individuals are valued for their unique contributions and are able to achieve their highest potential. We strongly believe that a diverse and inclusive environment is the best learning environment for our students and prepares them to live, work, and thrive in an increasingly global and multicultural community. We reject all prejudice, particularly those based on race, national and ethnic origin, religion, socioeconomic status, gender identity, sexual orientation, and physical characteristics.

This is a part time position and eligible for select benefits. During the interview process, we will review which benefits this position is applicable for during employment.

Interested candidates can send their cover letter, resume and list of references to Shannon Duckett, Human Resources Director, at sduckett@spsfg.org. This position, and all positions at The St. Paul's Schools, requires the successful completion of a background check which include verification of employment history and criminal background (with specific attention to any crimes related to children, and convictions for any crimes). The St. Paul's Schools is an equal opportunity employer.
